

SÈNE & CIE HAS SUCCESSFULLY ADVISED HAWKSFORD ON THEIR ACQUISITION OF ACT

The corporate finance advisory firm Sène & Cie acted as buy-side financial advisor to global corporate, private client, and fund services provider Hawksford in their acquisition of ACT Management Services (ACT), a Dutch corporate services and financial management services company,

As part of its global expansion strategy, Hawksford is committed to growing in key financial centres, where its client base is expecting growth. Assistance on this search was entrusted to Sène & Cie, which enabled the identification of ACT as a possible target company and facilitated both parties reaching an agreement on the transaction.

Michel van Leeuwen, Group Chief Executive commented: “I was impressed with Sène & Cie’s level of professionalism and commitment throughout the process. They managed the process and helped us navigate all variables and variations during the transaction, allowing us to reach an agreement that suited both parties.”

Specialist of cross-border transactions, Sène & Cie is applying its expertise to advising groups that operate on a global scale. The success of this acquisition further illustrates the firm’s ability to successfully manage international transactions.
